Joshua: the third person thing is kinda stupid
Joshua: A software engineer of 4 years experience, Josh is a well-rounded programmer who can quickly and seamlessly adapt to a wide range of technologies and platforms. Though he currently specializes in Ruby browser-based trading applications, in the past he has worked in a diverse spectrum of technologies, from augmented reality on Google's Android platform, to embedded driver testing and support, to data management and administration. He seeks to further develop his skills as a programmer in a challenging, programmer-centric business culture, and to learn something new about the art of programming every day.

Joshua: tell me what's wrong with this summary that andrew had a hand in writing
Joshua: barrett - found a job online
Joshua: i'll probably stop by later too
Joshua: i really want to get this one Joshua: the job is for 95-125k and it's asking for all stuff i know me: word, word, I'll take a look Joshua: word word word word word
Joshua: lol
Joshua: probably brush my teeth - and then swing by Joshua: now i'm gonna eat some eggs
Joshua: i'll email you the real deal
Joshua: i dongs what you mean Joshua: say what?
me: lol dongs
